

EagleBank Bowl Week Public Events

The 2009 EagleBank Bowl experience is much more than a game day extravaganza in Washington, D.C. In fact, the week leading up to kickoff provides several activities that the entire family can enjoy.

WELCOME RECEPTIONS

2009 EagleBank Bowl Week officially kicks off with the team Welcome Receptions at the DC Renaissance Hotel (Temple) and the Mayflower Hotel (UCLA).

Fans, alumni and residents get a chance to greet the teams and dish out a dose of Washington, D.C. hospitality upon each team's arrival to the nation's capital. The Welcome Receptions feature a short welcome program and light refreshments for the team, coaches and their families.

EAGLEBANK BOWL TEAMS LUNCHEON

The EagleBank Bowl Teams Luncheon is a celebration of football and the two participating schools. Student-athletes, coaches, fans and alumni come together for a time of fellowship before the big game at RFK Stadium. Fans get a chance to interact with the players and hear comments from Temple head coach Al Golden and UCLA head coach Rick Neuheisel and other guests to be announced. The luncheon takes place at the JW Marriott hotel on Sunday, December 27 from 2-3:30 p.m. Individual tickets and tables can be purchased in advance by calling (202) 785-BOWL or by emailing Andrew Sclama at asclama@EagleBankBowl.org.

TAILGATE PARTY @ THE DC ARMORY

At the Official Tailgate Party, the EagleBank Bowl celebrates the people that make the game the region's most exciting college football experience - the fans.

Complete with food, entertainment, and games for the kids, the EagleBank Tailgate Party is the ultimate game day preparty. The Tailgate Party takes place in the DC Armory on the day of the Bowl game from 12:30-4:30 p.m.

EAGLEBANK BOWL GAME

EagleBank Bowl Week events culminate with the game featuring UCLA vs. Temple. The game is set for Tuesday, December 29 at historic RFK Stadium. Kickoff is 4:31 p.m. on ESPN.

With plenty of action scheduled both on and off the field, there is no doubt that DCember Rocks at RFK.
